

Acknowledgments

I would like to start by thanking the Department of Philosophy and Vanier College at York University for supporting the club in providing a medium for students to voice their opinion.

I would also like to thank our editorial staff for this year, Lexi Bilous, York University; Nick Cicchini, York University; Aviral Dhamija, University of Toronto; Dora Skënderi, University of Toronto; Elias Yuan, University of Calgary; and Kai Zhang, University of Toronto. Thank you for taking time out of your busy schedule to help bring this journal to fruition. It was a privilege to work with you.

Thank you for everyone who submitted a paper to this year's journal. This alone speaks volumes of your character as a student, and, more importantly, as a philosopher. Whether your paper got published or not, I wholeheartedly encourage you to keep on philosophizing and to keep on voicing your opinion.

To Jasneet Butter, Odessa Hewitt-Bernhard, Garcia Ortega, Logan Scime, Ayra Thomas, and Yushan Wu, congratulations for getting your papers published! And a special thank you goes to Lauren Rudolph for submitting a hauntingly beautiful poem.

Lastly, I would like to extend my gratitude to Philosophia's executive team and to Kameron Lee, the club's president, for their ongoing support.

Sincerely,

Micheal Habib
